Letter of Recommendation

of

HUBERT O'DONNELL.

I have known Hubert O'Donnell for many years.

When he first came to this country, before he was of age, he was employed by relatives of mine, Mrs. William D. Page, and Mr. George Blake Grinnell, as a man of all work and gardner's helper. He stayed in their employment for more than five years.

After that he was employed by me, when I lived at Washington Heights, for more than three years.

After that he was employed at Altman's as a night porter for more than two years, and then as a night porter by the Wall Street Journal for more than two years, and after that he was employed by the Automobile Club of America, as a porter, for more than two years.

He is honest, industrious, careful and sober.

I would gladly employ him now myself, but in the city I live in a hotel, and my country place is far away. He has given complete satisfaction to all his employers, and I most earnestly recommend him.

(Signed) NEWELL MARTIN.
